Boutique29eleven coming to hospital for two-day event

For Immediate Release

(COLUMBUS, Neb.) – Columbus Community Hospital is pleased to welcome Boutique29eleven for a two-day clothing sale from 8-10 p.m. on Monday, Aug. 26, and 9 a.m.-4 p.m. on Tuesday, Aug. 27, in the hospital's first-floor conference center.

The public can browse an expansive selection featuring the latest in women's fashion, in sizes ranging from small-3XL. In addition to clothing essentials, there will also be a variety of accessories and shoes.

Angie Ramaekers, director of volunteer and guest services at the hospital, said she is pleased to bring this fundraising opportunity to the Columbus community.

"Through this fundraiser," she said, "those attending will have a fun shopping experience, while also contributing to the growth of medical services here at Columbus Community Hospital. The August fundraiser will feature clothing items, shoes and accessories. Additionally, the Boutique29eleven gals will be bringing their permanent jewelry.

Proceeds from the event will be used to help purchase the QuantaFLO® PAD screening device for Columbus Cardiology Clinic.

Organizers will accept cash, check, credit/debit cards and Venmo. Hospital employees can also use payroll deductions.
