Columbus Cancer Care: Where healing meets home

For Immediate Release

(COLUMBUS, Neb.) –A cancer diagnosis is a journey filled with questions and uncertainties. Columbus Cancer Care understands the weight of your concerns and is here to ease the path forward. Located right here in Columbus, our center is more than a place for treatments — it’s a community that cares.

Our dedicated staff members at Columbus Cancer Care are committed to providing the highest level of care with respect, compassion and the latest medical technology. We believe in the power of healing close to home, surrounded by the support of your loved ones.

“At Columbus Cancer Care, we are committed to giving hope in the fight against cancer by providing compassionate care and expertise right here at home,” said Ashley Carlson, practice manager for the facility. “We are with you every step of the way throughout your cancer journey. We offer the same treatment options and techniques as you would find in Omaha or Lincoln, but without the hassle of commuting five days a week for several weeks. We believe you should be able to focus on healing close to home.”

Columbus Community Hospital’s Patient Navigation Program is also here to guide and support you through every step of your cancer treatment and recovery. Our oncology nurse navigators and patient family resource specialists are part of your team, offering assistance, understanding and a helping hand when needed.

“My goal as an oncology navigator is to be my patients’ No. 1 advocate,” said Judy Pribnow, oncology nurse navigator for the hospital. “I want the patient to find me approachable and be comfortable asking questions related to their treatment. I feel that providing answers to them as soon as possible helps alleviate their anxiety. The ultimate goal for any patient is to help them navigate through their disease and cope with any stressors.”

In your fight against cancer, let Columbus Cancer Care be your home for healing — where community is not just a name, but also a promise of unwavering support.
