Public invited to memorial service for Pregnancy Loss and Infant Death Month

For Immediate Release

(COLUMBUS, Neb.) – Columbus Community Hospital will host the Precious H.E.A.R.T.S. (Healing, Embracing and Remembering Through Sharing) interfaith memorial service at 1:30 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 8, at Roselawn Cemetery, near 23rd Street and 3rd Avenue in Columbus.

This annual memorial service occurs each October, coinciding with National Pregnancy Loss and Infant Death Month. Individuals who have experienced pregnancy loss can attend with their family and friends.

The nondenominational, bilingual service will be near the Precious H.E.A.R.T.S. stone on the northeast side of the cemetery, directly west of Maximus Restaurant. It will last approximately one hour. A member of the Columbus clergy will lead the service.

Attendees should bring lawn chairs. In case of bad weather, please check Columbus Community Hospital's Facebook page, visit columbushosp.org or call the hospital's maternal child health department at 402-562-3266 to learn about alternative plans or cancellations.

For more information or to contribute to Precious H.E.A.R.T.S., please call the Columbus Community Hospital Foundation office at 402-562-3377 or email foundation@columbushosp.org.
