Apply for respiratory therapy program

For Immediate Release

(COLUMBUS, Neb.) – Columbus Community Hospital is currently accepting applications for its respiratory therapy scholarship/apprenticeship program.

Through the program, the hospital will pay for tuition, books and other education-related expenses for people who are taking a respiratory therapy course at Central Community College or Southeast Community College.

To be eligible for this scholarship/apprenticeship program, applicants must be:

- Residents of Columbus or the surrounding area.
- Currently enrolled in an accredited program at Central Community College or Southeast Community College and have at least a 3.0 grade-point average throughout the program.

The hospital will give preference to applicants who are hospital employees or immediate family members of CCH employees.

Applications are due Friday, April 15.

For more information and a link to the application, visit www.columbushosp.org or contact Melinda Allen, employment and education coordinator, at 402-562-3363 or mjallen@columbushosp.org.
