

News Release

Contact: Amy Blaser, Vice President

Phone: (402) 562-3371

Email: aebblaser@columbushosp.org

Date: September 11, 2019

Public invited to free estate planning seminar

For Immediate Release

(COLUMBUS, Neb.) – Life is a journey that starts and ends with family, and the Columbus Community Hospital Foundation wants to help community members protect their loved ones now and in the future.

Members of the public are invited to an Estate Planning Seminar, featuring James and Thomas Fehringer of Fehringer & Mielak, LLP from 6 to 8 p.m. on Thursday, October 10 in the hospital's Platte and Pawnee rooms.

The seminar will provide tips on how to best plan for an estate, along with common mistakes that can be avoided. Attendees will also learn how to set their houses in order and the pros and cons of their options.

The seminar is free and open to the public, but space is limited so RSVPs are requested by Monday, October 7. RSVP by calling 402-562-3377 or emailing foundation@columbushosp.org.

About James and Thomas Fehringer

James A. Fehringer, of Fehringer & Mielak, LLP, was admitted to the Nebraska State Bar in 1974, after receiving his Bachelor of Science from the University of Nebraska- Lincoln and his Juris Doctor degree from Creighton University. James specializes in trust and probate law, estate planning, estate and trust litigation, fiduciary law, corporate and business law, banking and commercial law, and real estate law.*

Thomas M. Fehringer, of Fehringer & Mielak, LLP, was admitted to the Nebraska State Bar in 1999, after receiving his Bachelor of Art in English from St. John's University and his Juris Doctor from Creighton University. Thomas specializes in personal injury law, wrongful death cases, liens, trusts, trust administration and probate, business planning, real estate law, and worker's compensation.*

For more information on the Estate Planning Seminar, please visit www.columbushosp.org.

###