Amanda Hopwood Receives 2019 Emergency Nurse Association Stretcher Award

For Immediate Release

(COLUMBUS, Neb.) – Amanda Hopwood BSN, RN, an emergency room nurse at Columbus Community Hospital (CCH), recently received the 2019 Emergency Nurse Association Stretcher Award.

The award focuses on Nebraska emergency nurses and this is the third year it has been given out.

“It is an honor to have a staff person from CCH nominated for this award,” said Sue Deyke, MSN, RN, CEN, CCH emergency department director/emergency manager. “Amanda is a patient advocate and provides excellent care in the emergency department.”

Hopwood received the award Wednesday, October 9 at the York Country Club.

She was nominated for the award by her former co-worker, Amanda Rutter, BSN, RN, CEN, CPEN, who praised Hopwood for her professionalism, compassion and communication skills.

“Ms. Hopwood displays compassion with her kind and caring bedside manner. She has an unmatched ability to make clients feel at ease as she attends to the demands of complex needs,” Rutter wrote in her nomination letter. “She embodies the essential qualities of effective nursing practice and serves as a role model for her peers.”
